

Jennifer Robertson

Managing Director

"Jenny's experience was invaluable - I could have listened to her all day."

"The engaging style of Jennifer as a presenter really brought the content to life."

"Great knowledge and passion from facilitator."

"Highly skilled engaging presenter. Knowledgeable and experienced."

After more than ten years in private legal practice, Jennifer made the strategic career move to become a corporate governance consultant at Board Matters. Throughout her private practice career, Jennifer had been sitting on boards of a number of organisations. Accordingly, she undertook business studies at QUT, during which time Jennifer decided to make the leap into the world of corporate governance consulting.

Today, with thirteen years' experience at Board Matters, Jennifer is Board Matters' Managing Director and a practicing lawyer, all whilst maintaining several company director roles. These roles include Deputy Chair of the Queensland Building and Construction Commission, Brisbane Marine Pilots and is Queensland Fire Emergency Services' first independent member on its Board of Management.

Current Positions

- Consultant of Board Matters Pty Ltd, since 2006 and Managing Director from January 2019
- Various directorships (listed on page 2)
- Facilitator for Australian Institute of Company Directors for the Company Director Course

Relevant Experience

Prior to her role at Board Matters, Jennifer was a Senior Associate with Corrs Chambers Westgarth. After more than ten years in private practice, Jennifer made the strategic career move to become a consultant at Board Matters. She has a Graduate Certificate in Business and a Bachelor of Laws from QUT and in 2015 was awarded a Certificate in the Foundations of NeuroLeadership with Distinction. Since 1996, Jennifer has been a director or member on many boards and governing bodies, as reflected in this curriculum vitae. She possesses a deep practical and theoretical understanding of corporate governance and believes that the true purpose of corporate governance is to harness a board's collective energy, skills and wisdom to drive a dynamic organisation for the ultimate creation of value for stakeholders, whether in the form of shareholder returns or optimised delivery of mission and services.
